

The Social Determinants of Health are non-medical factors (things) that affect health and well-being. Some of the Social Determinants of Health are: housing, transportation, education, employment and food access.

The Eastern Oregon Coordinated Care Organization (EOCCO) can do a screening (ask questions) over the phone to help identify you and your family's Social Determinant of Health needs.

If you have needs, EOCCO can give you resources and help connect you to services in your community.

To get a Social Determinants of Health Screening phone call from EOCCO:

- 1 Please fill out the online form by scanning the QR code below with the camera app on your smartphone.

- 2 You can also call EOCCO to ask for a screening at:

833-597-3290 (toll free)
